NAISIAI

Museum of Baltic Gods Sculptures

In 2012 Naisiai was decorated with 54 sculptures of Baltic gods, 38 of whom stand on a 1.4 km long educational trail. Exclusive places of the route are Sun and Fire Squares, Alka Hill.

1. Sun Square

The educational trail starts in the Sun Square surrounded by four gates with sculptures of the gods of heaven. At its centre, there is the Sundial: the old names of the hours are written on 25 stones, and the names of the main holidays typical for Baltic culture are written on the large stones.

9. Baltic Herbs Museum

The Baltic Herbs Museum in the form of a spindle consists of three parts: sacral, household and cultural. Herbs, spices and flowers of Lithuanian varieties grow in the Herbs Museum.

11. Baltic arena

125 thousand cubic metres of land in 2015 were used to make a 160 m wide and 200 m long embankment. Its slopes reach a height of 16 m. There is an altar in the highest place.

2. Naisiai Summer Theatre and Community Culture Palace

On the ground floor of the Palace of Culture there is a 220-seat auditorium and an information centre.

On the first floor, there are four exhibition halls of the Naisiai Land History Museum: the History, the Museums and Sights, the Kostas Gendvilas Room and the Naisiai Summer Theatre space.

4. Museum of Nesting-boxes

It is the first museum of nesting-boxes in Lithuania which has been established under the open sky. More than 100 nesting-boxes are provided in several places of the settlement, 7 information stands are installed nearby.

12. Fire Square

An altar is stacked in the centre of the fire-shaped square, sculpture of the goddess Gabija is next to it.

18. The Family of Royal Grass-Snakes

The shore of Šventežeris near Alka Hill is decorated with metal sculptures of four creeping grass-snakes.

14. Water Lilies Museum

30 varieties of water lilies grow in the Lilies Museum, which is located in the middle of Lake Laimė.

15. Lake Laimė with Rabbit and Angel Island

The island of Lake Laimė is decorated with stylized sculptures of angels. Rabbits live there in the warm season.

16. Swing Park

About 100 children and adults of different ages can swing in the Swing Park on the shores of Lake Laimė at the same time. The joy of swinging is also available for the disabled in a swing specially adapted for them.

17. Alka Hill

A reflection of the ancient Lithuanian faith sanctuary - Alkakalnis. There is an altar on the peak, sculptures of Praamžius, Perkūnas and Velinas are turned towards the altar.

13. Forest Flower Trail

Magnolia, rhododendron and paniced hydrangea can be admired on the nearly 300-metre-long forest trail that stretches between Alka Hill and Lake Laimė.

23. Šiauliai District Literature Museum

The poet's memorial room and exposition reflecting the literary history of Šiauliai district is installed in the stone manor owned by Counts Zubovas, built in 1822, where the poet Zigmąs Gaidamavičius-Gėlė (1894–1912) was born and raised.

24. Barn. Pottery workshop

In the workshop established in the barn of the manor, built in 1797, you can get acquainted with the craft of pottery and take part in educational activities.

25. Žemaitukai stud farm

Ramūnas Karbauskis' Žemaitukai stud farm was established in 2004. The main goal is to take care of breeding of these horses. Žemaitukai are trained, riding lessons take place, educational classes are organized.

5. Paintball Centre

Extreme sports enthusiasts can try their hand at the paintball centre. The building has 70 rooms and an outdoor space with barriers in various shapes.

22. White Stork, the restaurant for the whole family

A place for family celebrations, conferences, business meetings. For the little visitors, there is an entertainment area with an enclosed terrace and an outdoor playground. The guest house is located on the first floor of the restaurant.
